

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.
The Effects of Opiates.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotic, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells, which are likely to become permanent, causing imbecility, mental perversion, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life. Nervous diseases, such as intractable nervous dyspepsia and lack of staying powers, are a result of dosing with opiates or narcotics to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiates in the smallest doses for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrups and other narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly decried, and the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill need the attention of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to dose them willfully with narcotics. Castoria contains no narcotics if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

The signature of Chas. H. Fletcher guarantees genuine Castoria.
Physicians Recommend Castoria.

"Your preparation known as Castoria I have used for years in children's complaints and I have found nothing better." JOHN J. LAFAY, M. D., Cleveland, Ohio.

"For several years I recommended your 'Castoria' and shall always continue to do so, as it has invariably produced beneficial results." EDWIN F. PARKER, M. D., New York City.

"Your Castoria holds the esteem of the medical profession in a manner held by no other proprietary preparation. It is a sure and reliable medicine for infants and children. In fact it is the universal household remedy for infantile ailments." J. A. PARKER, M. D., Kansas City, Mo.

Ten Day's Campaign Opens With Big Dinner At The Young

Be it resolved that the citizens of Honolulu here assembled, representing all lines of industrial, commercial and professional activity in our city, heartily approve of the steps taken by the board of directors of the Young Men's Christian Association, and that we unitedly proceed at once to systematically canvass for funds for a new building, conditioning ultimate success upon our securing at least one hundred thousand dollars in subscriptions by Friday night, October 22, 1909, and that we, individually and collectively, pledge our hearty support, both of time and means, to the accomplishment of the undertaking.

This resolution introduced by Fred Waldron, following a speech by the secretary of the Y. M. C. A., was the signal for the formal launching of the ten day's campaign to raise $150,000 for the new Y. M. C. A. building which one of the speakers said would be ready for the housewarming a year hence.

Over two hundred business men of the city assembled at dinner last evening in the mauka pavilion of the Alexander Young Hotel, to further the campaign for the Y. M. C. A. building. It was "dutch treat." They were all invited and all paid for the dinner, and all glad to be there. After hearing speeches by President Trent of the Y. M. C. A., George R. Carter, Governor Frear, Judge Dole, Judge Woodruff and Secretary Super, they all joined in the slogan "Honolulu United" with sundry cheers and thunders of applause.

Then they passed the resolution. After that the heads of the various committees were called up. Mr. Carter prefacing this feature of the program by stating that W. G. Irwin before leaving had given his check for $5,000.

J. P. Cooke followed for his committee and stated that he could announce a $10,000 subscription for H. P. Baldwin.

Frank Atherton, speaking for his committee, said that he could not name the donor at that time, but he could guarantee another $10,000 subscription.

One of the other committeemen said that his party had $500 that they were sure of.

Thus before the evening was over subscriptions of $25,000 were reported, and Carter said that among the salaried men some had signified that they intended to give one month's salary from their yearly stipend for the good of the cause. The committee in charge of the campaign that will occupy the next ten days are made up as follows:

Mr. Hunn and Mr. Anderson, who are lining up two teams of twenty men, all younger men, to canvass among the younger men of the city, will meet for a dinner of their own tonight at the Y. M. C. A. at 6 o'clock, and they propose to show the older men how to hustle.

CAPTAIN MILLER SECURED SOME VALUABLE SALVAGE.

Salvage to the value of over $2,000 was secured from the bottom of the harbor yesterday by Captain Miller of the local salvage company.

The big anchor and some forty-five fathoms of heavy chain belonging to the Matson Navigation steamer Hydrex was hauled up from a position near the entrance to the channel by the winches of the steamer James Mackee.

The anchor and chain was lost on last Friday evening as the Hydrex was making the entrance to the port. A pin gave way, letting the heavy anchor and a large section of chain drop to the bottom. The local salvage people spent the greater part of Sunday and this morning at the work. The Mackee was assisted in the salvage operation by the tug In-trepid.
